About Flywheel

The Flywheel Investment Conference is Washington's meeting place for entrepreneurs and investors. Flywheel features keynote speakers on cutting edge topics, education, networking, and an investment competition. Since 2018, Flywheel has awarded over $1.5 million in investments, with founders securing millions in follow-on deals. Don't miss this opportunity to put your company in front of hundreds of investors and professionals from across the Pacific Northwest who gather to attend.

Calling All Founders

Is your company raising capital? Apply to compete at the 2025 Investment Conference in Wenatchee. Terms:

- Flywheel Angel Investors are offering a minimum $150k investment award. Plus, $50k relocation offer and $5k Fan Favorite cash prize.
- Any Washington-based company who has raised less than 2 million in capital is eligible. Grants and non-dilutive funding sources do not count towards eligibility.
- Open to any venture-scale company across all industries.
- Applicants must be available to meet virtually for interviews and participate in due diligence review from April - May.
- The top six finalists selected will compete live on stage to an audience of attendees and investors during the Flywheel Conference from May 21-23.
- Investors will deliberate and select the winner(s) who will receive an investment offer at the conclusion of the conference.

Perks

- It's free to apply, with no fees at any time in the process.
- All applicants receive 50% off conference tickets and recognition during the event, regardless of placement.
- Top six finalists receive free conference tickets, free exhibitor booth, a two-night hotel stay, and more.
